Faculty Scholarship Information

Who: College/university professors or lecturers interested in attending the Western Users of SAS® Software (WUSS) 2020 Conference and meeting each of the following six criteria:

1. Employment with a teaching or research assignment during the 2020–2021 academic year at an accredited degree-granting institution in the WUSS region (i.e., Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming)

2. Plans to use SAS® for teaching or research during the 2020–2021 academic year

3. Proof of teaching/research assignment (e.g., via an official letter from institution)

4. New WUSS faculty scholarship awardee (i.e., not previously awarded)

5. Ability to volunteer as a session or class coordinator (i.e., requires a 4-hour commitment)

6. Presentation of a paper (not a Quick Tips or Posters) at WUSS 2020[1]

What: Scholarship awardees will receive complimentary conference registration, one complimentary half-day class (Wed AM or Fri PM) and an awardee recognition event

When: September 9–11, 2020

Where: Manchester Grand Hyatt, San Diego, California,

How: Submit a scholarship application by June 1, 2020[2] at http://wuss.org/faculty-scholarships/ and a presentation abstract by June 1, 2020 at http://wuss.org/presenter-resources/

Why: WUSS is the officially recognized regional SAS® users group of the Western United States, providing professional development opportunities and a forum to exchange ideas for educational growth, training, and networking. To further these goals, the WUSS Executive Committee provides a limited number of faculty scholarships.

---

[1] If you have questions about appropriate presentation topics, or would like to request a mentor to assist you with preparing a presentation abstract, please e-mail Marie Boman-Davis Academic Scholars Program Coordinator: scholarships@wuss20.org

[2] Late or incomplete applications, including those without supporting documentation, will not be considered.